

2nd INEBRIA Conference
Münster, Germany ~ September 15 – 16, 2005

Co-sponsored by the World Health Organization and with the support of the Health Department of the Government of Catalonia

Wednesday, September 14

05:00-07:00 pm Meeting of the Steering Committee, Kolping-Tagungshotel

07:00-09:00 pm Welcome Reception, Kolping-Tagungshotel

Thursday, September 15

Morning Session

08:00-09:00 am Registration

09:00-09:15 am Welcome

09:15-10:00 am Keynote Address I

- Dr. Thomas Babor, USA, University of Connecticut, School of Medicine

Alcohol screening, brief intervention and referral to treatment (SBIRT): translational research par excellence

10:00-10:30 am Coffee Break

10:30-12:00 am Symposium I
Chair:

- Professor Nick Heather, Dr. Paul Cassidy & Mr. Mark Girvan, England, Northumbria University, Division of Psychology and Gateshead Primary Care Trust

Findings from The Tyne & Wear Health Action Zone SBI Pilot Implementation Project

-Dr. Joan Colom, Spain, Program on Substance Abuse of the Health Department of the Government of Catalonia

Implementation of EIBI in Catalonia: The Beveu Menys experience

-Professor Ralf Demmel, Germany, University of Münster, Dept of Clinical Psychology

Project BrIAN: training of general practitioners, implementation and treatment fidelity

12:00-01:00 pm Lunch

Afternoon Session

01:00-02:00 pm Poster Session

02:00-04:00 pm Symposium II
Chair:

-Dr. Henrietta Lundkvist, Sweden, Lund University, Clinical Alcohol Research

Effects of an interventional alcohol program in Swedish university dormitories

-Dr. Supa Pengpid, South Africa, University of Limpopo, National School of Public Health, Department of Social and Behavioural Health Sciences

Women empowerment: an intervention to reduce alcohol consumption and prevent alcohol-related problems

-Dr. Pierluigi Struzzo, Italy, Community Research Centre of Martignacco

Brief advice and local authorities

-Dr. Bonnie Mc Ree, USA, University of Connecticut, School of Medicine

Implementing screening and brief intervention models to reduce tobacco use and at-risk drinking in primary care clinics in the USA

04:00-04:30 pm Coffee Break

04:30-05:45 pm INEBRIA Annual General Meeting

Social Program

06:15-07:45 pm Reception at the Town Hall (»Friedenssaal«)

08:30-11:30 pm Dinner at the Pfefferkorn

Friday, September 16

Morning Session

09:15-10:00 am Keynote Address II

-Mark Willenbring, USA, NIAAA

The new NIAAA Clinician's Guide: development and implementation in a continuum of care

10:00-10:30 am Coffee Break

10:30-12:00 am Symposium III
Chair:

-Dr. Hans-Jürgen Rumpf, Germany, Medical University of Luebeck, Dept. Of Psychiatry and Psychotherapy
Is there an increased readiness to change drinking in patients visiting a general practitioner?

-Professor Mats Berglund, Sweden, Lund University, Clinical Alcohol
Research
Prevention of high-risk alcohol consumption in university students: a systematic literature research including meta-analyses

-Dr. Peter Anderson, Netherlands, Radboud University of Nijmegen,
Medical School, Department of Quality of Care
Numbers needed to screen and numbers needed to treat for hazardous and harmful alcohol consumption in primary health care

12:00-01:00 pm Lunch

Afternoon Session

01:00-02:00 pm PHEPA Workshop
-Dr. Antoni Gual, Spain, Health Department of the Government of Catalonia
Dealing with alcohol in primary health care: what the PHEPA Project has to say

02:00-04:00 pm Symposium IV
Chair:

-Dr. Alicia Rodriguez-Martos, Catalonia (Spain), Public Health
Agency of Barcelona
Effectiveness of brief interventions in BAC-positive traffic casualties attending an emergency room: one year follow-up

-Professor Kaija Seppä, Finland, University of Tampere, Medical School, Department of General Practice
One step forward: VAMP project implements brief alcohol interventions in Finnish primary health care

-Dr. Cristina Ribeiro, Portugal, Directorate General of Health, Psychiatry and Mental Health Dept.
Alcohol national networking in Portugal

-Professor Karl Peltzer, South Africa, University of Venda, Department of Psychology,
Attitudes and management of alcohol problems in general practice in rural South Africa

04:00-04:30 pm Coffee Break

04:30-05:15 pm Farewell and Résumé